

Dear colleague

ESSEN [East Sussex Social Enterprise Network] and The Business Community Partnership would like to invite you to Show You're Worth It!

A morning workshop about measuring social impact and social accounting on Friday 26th March 2010 at the University of Sussex

Are you or is somebody you know, interested in measuring the social value of what you do?

Have you thought about how you can demonstrate triple bottom line for your organisation, to procurers, commissioners, stakeholders, funders, clients or supporters?

Don't miss this opportunity to attend this workshop, to hear about ways for social enterprises to measure social impact and about producing social accounts. There will also be a chance to hear from those involved in the Better project, a Sussex wide initiative which has been working with 6 social enterprises to embed social impact measurement in practice.

Book Now for the workshop on Friday 26th March 2010
10am to 1.30pm
University of Sussex, Falmer, East Sussex

This workshop is suitable for participants from

- social enterprises and third sector organisations delivering services
- those involved in supporting the social economy
- those involved in contracting or commissioning services from this sector

Tea coffee and refreshments will be provided and there will be an opportunity to network with other organisations. Information will also be available about business development support for social enterprise within your area.

The workshop is free of charge if you are part of or planning the development of a social enterprise. For all other organisations please enquire. Free places will be prioritised for social enterprises and third sectors organisations currently or planning to deliver public services. Contact Dawn.brock@ruralsussex.org.uk to book a place or phone 01273 407313.

There is likely to be a high demand for the workshop. Therefore if you book a place and do not attend (without giving at least 48 hours notice) you will be charged a cancellation fee of £50 per person to cover food and administrative costs.

Please pass this email on to your networks and contacts. Apologies for any cross postings. We look forward to seeing you on the 26th March.
